Foster Information

Are you aware that avian(s) may have or currently possess bad habits? These habits can and may include destruction of clothing, property, furniture, draperies, and anything within their reach. It may also include biting screaming, fear or extreme dislike of strangers (including inhabitants of the home), or fecal matter. These habits can be difficult to break, and WILL require a great deal of attention, training, and constant maintenance. Additionally, as a foster parent you are responsible for ALL costs up to but not excluding veterinary care, food, housing, toys, and entertainment. Avian World Rescue Kingdom will NOT refund any funds for any reason during the foster program. If you understand and accept this please initial here: _____

If during the fostering of an avian, the foster parent(s) choose to adopt the avian, the foster parents will have to pay the adoption fee for the avian. This fee will be established in an adoption contract, as different avian require different costs. You, as the foster parent, are NOT required to adopt any avian they may be fostering. _____ (Initials)

Please note, this application in no way guarantees that a foster avian is available or will be match with the applicant. It also, in no way, is an adoption contract or an ownership document. The avian will remain the ownership of Avian World Rescue Kingdom while in your care. By signing this document, your are stating that all listed answers are true to the best of your knowledge and any falsification of any information is cause for immediate rejection to the Foster Program provided by Avian World Rescue Kingdom. Also by signing this document, you accept the responsibilities and financial cost that is associated with fostering an avian.
